Basic conducting techniques By Joseph A Labuta

Basic Conducting Techniques, Seventh Edition provides a clear and intelligible introduction to the art of conducting an ensemble. Over twenty chapters lay out the elements of conducting, followed by an extensive selection of musical examples from the classical repertoire. This seventh edition has been updated to include the full scores of key excerpts. A companion website now accompanies the book, providing additional resources including transposed scores, recordings of the excerpts, and video demonstrations of techniques. The new edition will feature: Chapters rewritten and redesigned to better highlight important information and show connections between different sections. Material on expressive conducting has been updated and expanded to a new full chapter. Select full scores added in the Musical Excerpts section. Excerpts with transpositions added to the text of each chapter, allowing easy access for class performance. A new companion website, which will include the scores and transpositions for all the musical excerpts, audio files of excerpts, and new demonstration videos modelling specific techniques for each chapter. Updated photographs
