Editorial Review

From Booklist

Eglantine “Harry” Knight thinks she is merely managing a band for a wealthy Greek man’s sister’s birthday party. Instead, she tumbles into a heady relationship with billionaire Iakovos Papaioannou. Almost from the first chapter the two are wrapped in a sensuous relationship while they struggle to fit each other into their very different worlds. Iakovos’ brother has problems he will not acknowledge. Harry has no confidence in herself and doubts she will stay with one of the world’s leading bachelors. The popular and prolific MacAlister has written titles in several genres of romance, including her recent reader-pleasing dragon series, and though not paranormal, this title has some similarities, with alpha-male Iakovos and humorous, zany Eglantine. With a style reminiscent of MaryJanice Davidson, this steamy love caper has almost no conflict and is perfect for fans of light, sexy romance. --Amy Alessio
