Editorial Review

Review

"An openly political novel posing the people of the land against the forces of oppression...it has the virtues of wit and compassion and reveals the foundation upon which the later novels were constructed."-- Jonathan Yardley, "Washington Star""More than a prelude...the dazzling sense of place, the colorful idiosyncrasy of character are present for us to marvel over once again."-- "The New Republic""One Hundred Years of Solitude" is just around the rain-drenched corner."-- "Boston Globe"
