Editorial Review

About the Author

Since attaining her B.A. in Music in 1977, Christine has been sharing her gifts and "magic sparkles," encouraging her preschool students and children's audiences to laugh, sing, wonder, imagine, dream, and believe! Christine is a gifted singer, teacher, music, and imagination children's performer, writer/creator, lyricist/songwriter composing the songs from the story found on the C.D. audio version of this book. In 1997 she wrote and premiered her first story entitled The Snow Princess to enthusiastic reviews at children's centers and educational stores and now, just 4 years later, A Snowflake Dream has finally sprouted "sparkling wings to fly!" Christine resides in Buffalo Grove, IL, with her husband David and teenage daughter Rebecca.

From the Author . . . My dream has always been to create a seasonal story that celebrates each child's unique gifts and dreams, beliefs, handicaps, and ethnicity. So it was on one snowy winter's night that I discovered nature had provided the perfect universal symbol for such a story . . . the unique and magical snowflake! The silent snowflake relays a very clear and simple message. That we are all unique and are blessed with special sparkling gifts and dreams of our own to share. When we stop to think that nearly every invention or creation began with a dream . . . or we recall all of the contributions made by the great dreamers and visionaries of our time . . . it is easy to see why encouraging our children at an early age to imagine, dream, and believe is so important. As a tribute to all the child dreamers of the world, I have chosen to donate a percentage of the proceeds of this book to help 3 very special children's organizations, whose children's dreams are showcased in this book. It is my hope that when children read their special words and dreams, they too will be inspired to follow their own dreams and help make a difference in the world . . . because every dream counts!
