About the Author

The author works for an automotive company, where she got introduced to the game of road rallies. She has participated in many road rallies, and have organized even more, specializing in rallies with a Halloween theme. She decided to write a book on road rallies when people continuous came to her for advice on how to organize a road rally. The original "helpful hints" grew to be considerable, so she decided to publish the book to help other people who would like to hold and/or participate in road rallies. With her first-hand knowledge of the game as well as time-saving tips, she hopes that everyone who participates in and/or organizes a road rally enjoys the game as much as she does.
