Private Eye School: More One-Hour Mysteries By Mary Ann Carr

In this companion to her best-selling books, One-Hour Mysteries and More One-Hour Mysteries, Carr presents five exciting new mysteries for student detectives to tackle. Students will sharpen their sleuthing skills after completing the course designed for great detectives at the Private Eye School, before moving on to tackle mysteries such as A Vandal Strikes and The Great Electric Train Robbery.

Along the way, students will learn to analyze bloodstains and lip prints, while decoding messages and solving challenging puzzles. Each of these mysteries requires students to think outside of the box, organize data, take notes, make inferences, and use deductive reasoning skills. The mysteries include a teacher's guide and attractive reproducible pages for students to use in their investigations.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Mary Ann Carr began writing mysteries for kids to solve while teaching gifted students. Each of her three mystery books are designed to develop critical thinking skills. She has taught grades 1–7 as a gifted and talented education resource teacher for 14 years. Prior to this experience, she worked in Richmond, VA, first as a classroom teacher then in a Chapter I program, teaching photography and video to struggling learners in the inner city. Mary Ann was an educational consultant for seven years, hired by school systems to conduct workshops on differentiation for classroom teachers. She holds a master's degree in curriculum development from Virginia Commonwealth University. She currently teaches in the College of William and Mary's summer enrichment program. Mary Ann recently retired as a resource teacher and lives on the Chesapeake Bay in a rural county in Virginia.
